

Equal Opportunities Policy

Lawrence & Beavan has always operated a strict policy of equality and anti-discrimination and we employ people solely on their suitability for the post offered.

We do not discriminate on grounds of race, nationality, gender, disability, age, religion/belief, or sexual orientation.

We are committed to equality for all in employment, promotion, pay and the provision of services.

We trust that you find this information interesting and useful, and we welcome your feedback at info@landb.co.uk.

Information is based on our experience and should not be taken as official or legal advice.